

I am the Sussex Police lead on heritage crime and to raise awareness and the profile of heritage crime in Sussex I am holding Heritage Crime Surgeries, with Bexhill Museum being my base for East Sussex.

The purpose of these surgeries is to engage with the wider community sharing knowledge and ideas on how these crimes can be tackled. Networking between venues of historical significance is invaluable and the sharing of information regarding heritage crimes is critical as this is shared and can be collated nationally.

I would formally like to invite you to either of my next surgeries which are taking place at Bexhill Museum on Tuesday 24 October and Monday 20 November between 10:00~12:00.

The format of each day is open but will include a presentation at 10:15 and 11:15 by myself.

If you could confirm your attendance I would be grateful.

Kind regards

Daryl Holter

Sussex Police Heritage Crime Lead
